VDL GROEP LOYAL PARTNER IN EQUESTRIAN SPORTS FOR MANY YEARS

VDL Groep has been a loyal and valuable partner for equestrian sports and sporting events in the Netherlands for many years. In addition, VDL Groep supports the Dutch top rider Leopold van Asten and there is the Duyselshof Stud. And it has been for a very long time. "I have been working there for 22 years since last 1 October. That's a long time and I'm still having a super time." Leopold is originally from Limburg and that makes JIM special for him. "It's fun to be here. I meet a lot of acquaintances and I am super happy that Jumping Indoor Maastricht is back on the calendar after two years of absence. It's great to see how they have set up the competition again now." The blood runs where it can't go and meanwhile a granddaughter of Wim van der Leegte, Tara, is also competing fully on the international show jumping circuit. She will therefore be in action at the MECC this weekend.

PARTY AT FAMILLY BOCKEN!

Alicia and Emma Bocken have won the first and second category in CSI 1* on friday.

MAASTRICHT IS PERFECT 'VENUE' FOR EXELL

Boyd Exell won the 2019 FEI Driving World Cup in Maastricht. But that is not the only thing this top rider managed to achieve. The current world champion has now managed to win this world title six times. "Maastricht is a perfect 'venue' for me as it is close to Belgium, Germany and France and many driving fans have bought tickets. I know from experience that my horses are very fast on the bridge here," Boyd laughed. He is referring to the incident a few years ago in Maastricht when his horses went up the bridge totally unexpectedly during the award ceremony, and a number of people had to jump away very quickly! "I used my right wheeler horse Mad Max several times last season and he is gaining more confidence and experience every round. I am riding in Maastricht with the same team I won with in Lyon last week. My right leader horse Jupiter is new this season, he's learning a lot from my experienced left leader horse Bundy (Bajnok), so the aim this season is for my right side horses to gain a lot of experience and confidence."

ROGER YVES BOST HAPPY TO COME TO JIM

Top French rider Roger Yves Bost, also known as 'Bosty', is eager to come to Jumping Indoor Maastricht. The 57-year-old has his own stables in Barbizon just below Paris, so he doesn't have to travel very far to start in the MECC. "I have been to Maastricht many times and I think it is one of the best indoor events," he said. He has brought three horses with him. Nine-year-old Delph de Denat HDC, a daughter of Air Jordan, a young horse and another horse especially for the competitions where it mainly comes down to speed. "Delph has a lot of potential and I hope she will become my future top horse. It's good for her that she can gain experience again here at such a top event."

FIERS À CHEVAL ENCHANTS AUDIENCE

Visitors to Jumping Indoor Maastricht can enjoy a unique show during this edition: Fiers à Cheval by Compagnie des Quidams from France.

With a visual, luminous and musical show, the company will take over the arena with the help of beautiful illuminated costumes and enchant the audience. The show will be seen on Friday evening and Saturday afternoon and evening.
